Amendment to the Bylaws

Tallahassee Association of Wedding Professionals, Inc. A Nonprofit Corporation

WHEREAS, at the Regular meeting of Tallahassee Association of Wedding Professionals, Inc., a nonprofit corporation on Wednesday, December 14, 2011, members voted unanimously to amend Article 3, Section 2. Application Procedures, as follows:

Article 3. Section 2. Application Procedures.

(a) The Board will vote quarterly on new members (March, June, September, and December), but reserves the right to call for special vote(s) via email or a special meeting as the Board deems necessary to expedite the application process.

(b) The Board of Directors shall adopt an application form for membership.

(c) The application form, the qualifications for membership and the guidelines for membership will be provided it to the Website Committee for placement on the website. Members may refer potential applicants to the website.

(d) The applicant will return a completed application form along with the initial application fee, qualifying paperwork (current City, County and/or State Licenses in the name of the company/individual applying for membership) and annual dues in full (the pro-rated amounts will be listed on the website).

(e) If the category is capped (15 percent of the membership), the applicant will be informed and added to the waiting list and funds will be refunded.

(f) When the application is in order, the membership chair or designee will email the corresponding secretary with the new applicant's information.

(g) On the first business day of the month. The corresponding secretary will send an email to all members with the applicant's information.

(h) Members will be allowed seven (7) calendar days to express via email to the Board any objections to the candidate's admission into TAWP.

(i) The Board will review any objections and determine the legitimacy of any concerns and make a determination as to the applicant's qualifications to become a member.

Amendment to the Bylaws

(j) If there are no objections expressed by the membership then the applicant will be deemed acceptable and voted on by the Board.

(k) If the applicants' category is capped, the applicant will be placed on the waiting list and the Membership chair will keep track of membership growth and status. The Membership chair will notify the Board of any available category openings and will notify the applicant(s) in the order which they applied.

(l) If the applicant's category has a slot available and the applicant has been approved for membership by the Board, the Membership Chair will then present the application to the Website Chair and the Advertisement/Publicity Chair so that all marketing opportunities are given to the new member.

(m) Should an applicant complete and file any false statements or any information on any application whether or not related to any wedding professional, or should the applicant have shown contempt and/or malice, either stated or implied toward the TAWP, its members for its objectives, etc., his/her application may be denied until such charges or activities have been cleared or discharged.

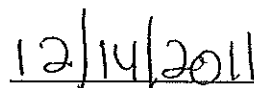

(n) Except in the aforementioned circumstance, in the event of rejection, all funds will be reimbursed to the applicant.

(o) Any rejected applicant shall wait no less than twelve (12) months before reapplying.

All other Bylaws shall remain unchanged. Voted and approved this the 14 day of December, 2011.

BYLAWS
TALLAHASSEE ASSOCIATION OF WEDDING PROFESSIONALS, INC.
A Nonprofit Corporation

Article I - Name and Location

The name of the corporation is Tallahassee Association of Wedding Professionals, Inc. The title may be abbreviated TAWP. The principal office of the corporation will be at a location designated by the Board of Directors, but meetings of members and directors may be held at such places within the State of Florida as may be designated by the Board of Directors.

Article II - Objectives and Principles

Section 1. Mission Statement. Tallahassee Association of Wedding Professionals is an organization committed to ethically advancing standards of excellence for our members and the communities we service.

Section 2. The meetings will provide individual members networking provisions, educational opportunities, development tools, and support.

Section 3. The membership will promote the following goals within the Tallahassee bridal industry.

- (a) Raise the standards of excellence among members.
- (b) Elevate the integrity of the Tallahassee bridal industry together.
- (c) Substantiate individual members.
- (d) Procure bargaining strength for advertising and other promotions.
- (e) Enforce a standard of ethics and acceptable business practices from its members.

(g) Teach the Greater Tallahassee Community more about their local bridal industry.

Section 4. Referrals. Association members should feel comfortable referring to the services of any other TAWP member, including any business which is analogous to their own. It is not in the spirit of our organization to promote the least cost but rather focus on the utmost quality and service to each bridal couple.

Article III – Members

Section 1. Qualifications. In order to be considered for membership, a prospective member must meet the following qualifications.

- (a) Applicant must provide a copy of their current City, County, and/or State Occupational Licenses in the name of the company/individual applying for membership.
- (b) Applicant must have been in business for more than one year working as a wedding professional or participating in the Tallahassee area wedding industry, and be willing to provide a business card, copy of a business contract, and names of three recent clients.
- (c) Applicant must have two TAWP sponsors who have personal knowledge of the applicant's work and its quality
- (d) Applicant must also meet any category specific membership criteria, including, but not limited to, portfolio review and submission of other applicable licenses and necessary accreditations.
- (e) Membership shall not be denied to otherwise qualified applicants based on race, creed, sex, or national origin
- (f) Membership in any given category may be capped at a certain number or percentage as determined by the Board of Directors. All qualifying applicants for capped categories shall be placed on a waiting list and will be notified once there is an available space in the category.

Section 2. Application Procedures. The general membership shall have the opportunity quarterly to suggest possible new members to the board for invitation. An invitation for membership shall be sent out quarterly to prospective members whose businesses could be accepted in categories not already capped. New members will be voted on by the Board of Directors each quarter. The Board of Directors shall adopt an application form for membership. A prospective applicant shall complete the form and return it with all other applicable documentation for review by the membership committee. The application and documentation shall be forwarded to the membership committee for their review and recommendations to the Board of Directors. Membership sponsors will be inquired about the reputation of the applicant. Any objections by TAWP members of applicant's membership being granted must be in the form of a written document. The members shall have 15 days after the notice is sent the members within which to object to the admission of a prospective member. The membership committee shall either recommend approval or disapproval of the membership application and forward its recommendation to the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors is vested with the authority to approve or reject an application for membership. Upon approval, membership chairperson shall prepare a new member information packet and present the material to the Marketing chairperson to ensure the new members inclusion in all marketing opportunities.

Section 3. Class of Members. Membership shall be divided into three categories:

(a) Primary Membership - An individual, partnership, or corporation lawfully engaged in the business of wedding and event services in Tallahassee and the surrounding areas can apply for this level of membership. There will be only one primary membership per person or company. The company may designate two representatives per membership, but each membership shall be entitled to one vote on TAWP policies and for elected office. Only one representative from a members company may be permitted to run for office.

(b) Secondary Membership - These memberships are available to businesses who already have a primary membership and who conduct business in more than one category. Members whose business name or practices include multiple categories may be required to apply and purchase memberships in every applicable category. The secondary membership is at a 25 percent price reduction from the primary membership, but does not include any additional representatives or votes. Secondary memberships will be promoted equally in both categories they belong to.

(c) Honorary Membership - These memberships will be awarded for unusual contributions above and beyond to promote the welfare of the wedding and event industry. This membership may be designated upon an individual or company by the Board of Directors. The members will not have voting privileges and are ineligible to run for office.

Section 4. Disciplinary Action and Termination.

(a) External. All members, as a condition of membership, must operate their business according to the policies, rules, and by-laws of the Association. Upon the receipt of a written complaint from a client against a member of the Association, the Board of Directors via the Ethics Committee shall investigate the complaint and determine its legitimacy. All complaints shall be treated in a confidential manner. The member in question will receive written notice stating the complaint and notify them they are under investigation by the Board. During the course of the investigation, the member in question shall have their membership suspended.

A suspended member may not be featured on the website, may not participate in special events such as bridal expos, and may not vote or hold office. They may attend any general meeting, but may not attend any board meetings. All documentation and responses shall be done in writing or by e-mail and submitted to the ethics committee. Should the complaint be found justified, the member will be given thirty days to resolve the complaint to the satisfaction of the Board of Directors. The committee shall review all documentation on the complaint and response and shall make recommendations to the Board of Directors for final action on the matter. At the discretion of the Board of Directors, a member may have their membership terminated due to an ethics complaint. If the Board of Directors chooses to terminate a membership for any reason, all membership fees paid would be retained by the Association and all privileges and benefits of membership shall be revoked. The Board of Directors may choose to issue a warning, temporarily suspend membership, or terminate a membership based on the content of an ethics violation.

A terminated member must remove forthwith from his/her advertising any reference to membership in the Association.

Section 6. Resignation. Membership may be terminated by resignation. A member who resigns is not entitled to the return of any prepaid fees or dues. A resigned member must remove forthwith from his/her advertising any reference to membership in the Association and shall be removed from all TAWP marketing and promotions.

Article IV - Meetings of Members

Section 1. General Meetings. On the second Wednesday of every month, at a location and time determined by the Board of Directors, the general meetings of members will be held with the exception of Summer Social and the Winter Holiday Party. Meetings are open to all members and to invited guests. Members are permitted to bring one guest per meeting. Guests from within the bridal industry may be permitted to attend free of charge. Guests must be sponsored by a TAWP member who will then be responsible for their introduction and decorum at the meeting. As a guest, they must sign in with the Secretary, but are exempt from payment for their first attended meeting. A guest may attend a maximum of one meeting per calendar year before membership is required. All meetings for the Association shall be conducted in accordance with the Rules of Order as set down by the agenda and under the direction of the President. The chairperson for the meeting will be the President, Vice-President, or any officer of the Board of Directors appointed to act as chairperson. All rules of order not provided for, herein, shall be governed by Robert's Rules of Order.

Section 2. Attendance Policy. Members are required to attend or send a representative to at least one meeting in each quarter. The first quarter that the member fails to meet the attendance policy, the member's membership is suspended. If the member meets the requirements of attendance in the following quarter, the suspension is lifted. The member must meet the attendance requirements for the remaining two quarters in order to keep its membership active.

Section 3. Special Meetings. Special meetings of members may be called at any time by the by the Board of Directors, or on written request of members who are entitled to vote ten percent (10%) of the voting interests in the Association. Only matters identified in the notice of special meeting of members may be considered at a special meeting of members.

Section 4. Notice of Meetings. Written notice of each meeting of members will be given by, or at the direction of, the Secretary or other person authorized to call the meeting, by delivering, mailing or electronically transmitting a copy of such notice, postage prepaid, not less than seven (7) days before such meeting to each member entitled to vote thereat, addressed to the member's address last appearing on the books of the Association, or supplied by such member to the Association for the purpose of receiving notice. Such notice will specify the day, hour, and place of the meeting, and in the case of a special meeting, the purpose of the meeting. All members are required to notify the Secretary if they are intending to attend the specified meeting.

Section 5. Quorum. The presence at the meeting, in person or by proxy, of members entitled to cast a majority of the votes of the membership will constitute a quorum for authorization of any action, except as may otherwise be provided in the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws. If a quorum is not present at any meeting, the members entitled to vote thereat will have power to adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum is present.

Section 6. Proxies. At all meetings of members, each member may vote in person or by proxy. All proxies will be in writing (including email) and filed with the Secretary. Proxies will be revocable, and the proxy of any owner will automatically terminate when membership is terminated.

Article V - Board of Directors - Term of Office; First Election; Removal

Section 1. Number. The affairs of the Association will be managed by a board of seven directors, each of whom shall be a member of the Association. Each of the officers shall be a member of the board, together with two other members.

Section 2. Term of Office. At the October monthly meeting of members, the members will elect directors for a term of one (1) year beginning in January of the coming year.

Section 3. Removal. Any director may be removed from the board, with or without cause, by a majority vote of the members of the Association. In the event of death, resignation, or removal of a director, a successor will be selected by the remaining members of the board and will serve for the unexpired term of the predecessor.

Section 4. Compensation. No director will receive compensation for any service rendered to the Association. However, any director may be reimbursed for actual expenses incurred in the performance of duties.

Article VI - Board of Directors and Officers - Nomination and Election

Section 1. Nomination. Nomination for election to the Board of Directors, including officers, will be made by an election committee. Additional nominations may be made from any members in good standing at the October meeting. The election committee will consist of a chairman, who will be a member of the Board of Directors, and two members of the Association in good standing. The committee chairperson will be appointed by the Board of Directors prior to the August meeting to serve through the October meeting, and such appointment will be announced at the August meeting. In no event will the election committee nominate less than the number of vacancies to be filled.

Section 2. Election. Election of officers and directors will be by secret written ballot at the October meeting. At such election the members or their proxies may cast one (1) vote for each vacancy. Absentee ballots may be obtained from the election committee and are due before the meeting at which the election is held. If a member of the election committee is nominated, that member must recuse him/herself from the counting of any ballots. The person receiving the largest number of votes will be elected.

Section 3. Qualifications. Officers and members of the Board of Directors shall be members of the Association. To be elected as President, a member must serve as a member in good standing for at least two years and as an officer and/or Board member for one of those years. To be nominated for Vice-President, a member must serve as a member in good standing for two years and as an officer and/or Board member for one of those years. To be elected as Treasurer, Corresponding Secretary, or Recording Secretary, a member must be in good standing for one year in the Association. Two Directors will be appointed by the President.

Section 4. Transition of Officers and Chairpersons. Newly elected Officers shall take office on January 1st following the election and serve until December 31st. The outgoing officers and chairpersons will transfer records to the newly elected team at the December meeting.

Article VII - Board of Directors - Meetings

Section 1. Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors will be held once a month at such place, date and hour as may be fixed from time to time by resolution of the board. Meetings shall be open to the general membership. Committee reports shall be shared verbally at each meeting. The Recording Secretary will keep typewritten minutes and standard agenda notes for each meeting dated and signed by the Secretary. The minutes will be kept in chronological order and should be made available online within one week of the meeting.

Section 2. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Directors will be held when called by the president of the Association or by any two directors after not less than forty-eight (48) hours notice to each director.

Section 3. Quorum. A majority of directors will constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Every act performed or decision made by a majority of directors present at a duly held meeting in which a quorum is present will constitute the act or decision of the board.

Article VIII - Board of Directors - Powers and Duties

Section 1. Powers. The Board of Directors will have power to exercise on behalf of the Association all powers, duties, and authority vested in or delegated to the Association and not specifically reserved to the membership by the Declaration, Articles of Incorporation or by other provisions of these Bylaws. In addition, the board may declare the office of a member of the Board of Directors to be vacant in the event that such member is absent from three consecutive regular meetings of the Board of Directors; and Section 2. Duties. It will be the duty of the Board of Directors to:

- (a) Cause to be kept a complete record of all its acts and corporate affairs and to present a statement thereof to the members of the board at each meeting of the board, or at any special meeting of the board;
